ROUTE 206 FARES

Special rail-bus combination fares are available for Regional Rail passengers using Route 206.

For Everyday Commuting: Regular commuters can save by using SEPTA monthly or weekly passes. Passengers using a valid Trailpass or an Intermediate Rail Pass can board Route 206 buses at no additional expense. Trailpasses can also be used on any SEPTA service.

For Occasional Trips: Occasional travelers can save using the special 50¢ interdivisional transfers for "200-Series" routes:

- Going to the bus: Tell the train crew that you are going to Route 206 when paying your fare or when your ticket is collected. The 50¢ transfer fee (exact change) will be collected when leaving the bus.
- Going to the train: If you already have a ticket, show your ticket to the bus driver and pay 50¢ (exact change) when boarding the bus. If you do not have a ticket, pay $2.00 (exact change) when boarding the bus; the bus driver will give you a transfer good for $1.50 when paying your fare aboard the train.

For Transit Trips: Regular transit fares are in effect on Route 206 for transit passengers.

ROUTE 206 IS A BUS THAT IS LIKE A TRAIN

Route 206 is a bus extension of SEPTA Regional Rail service to the Great Valley Corporate Center. Route 206 is scheduled to meet certain Route R5 trains from Philadelphia at Paoli Station. In the event of a train delay, Route 206 buses will wait at Paoli Station until the connecting trains shown in this timetable arrive.

Route 206 also connects at Paoli Station with Route R5 trains from Downingtown, with Route 92 buses from King of Prussia and West Chester, and with Route 105 buses from 69th Street Terminal, Upper Darby. Easy connections can be made in Center City between Route R5 and Route R1 (Airport Line).

Special rail-bus combination fares are available for Route 206 passengers. See the fare information box on the opposite side for additional information or call SEPTA at 580-7800 between 6 AM and Midnight.
