GREEN LOOP

In 1999, University City District (UCD), in partnership with SEPTA, began the LUCY (Loop thru University City) service in order to provide a critical link between Philadelphia's transportation hub at 30th Street Station and University City's largest employers. Since that time, the LUCY system has grown to carry more than 250,000 passengers annually while consistently maintaining a 90% approval rating according to an annual passenger census conducted by UCD. LUCY is operated by SEPTA and is made possible with support from University City District, University of Pennsylvania, University of Pennsylvania's Health System, The Science Center, and Veterans Administration Hospital.
